FRENCH TROOPS MOVE NEAR BORDER

Entente Forces Are Ready to Enter Germany

TIME LIMIT MAY 12

Government to Pay 6,600,000,000 Pounds Sterling at Rate of 100,000,000 Pounds Yearly

Paris, May 3.—France had something of the air today she wore in 1914 as preparations were rushed for the Allied occupation of the Westphalian industrial region.

Four trains loaded with cannon, machine guns and shells left Laroche for the Rhine today, and cavalry and artillery are on the way to the frontier from Melun, Lyons, Vienne and Valence. Mobilization order for the class of 1919 will be sent throughout France by tomorrow morning and make more than 100,000 men available for the service of occupation within a week.

Several railroads in the eastern departments leading toward the German frontier are reported to have been placed under military control.

The French are confident no eleventh hour proposal from Germany will be sufficiently satisfactory to halt the Allied advance into Germany. Officials at the Foreign Office, who in the past two days had been very anxious over the differences which had developed at the London conference said today that the road is well cleared for putting the French military program into operation.

As they continue perfecting plans French are counting on two factors which they think make the occupation of Westphalia inevitable after the 10 days' grace granted by the London conference: First, today's assurance of British support; second, Germany's unwillingness to furnish their required guarantees.

It is doubtful if any German Government would feel prepared to assume the responsibility of giving complete financial control of Germany in to the hands of the Allies—which would require the most intimate supervision of German industry and participation in the ownership and profits.

French officials, while claiming a diplomatic victory in London today, also expressed satisfaction over the signing of a new military and political alliance between Rumania and Czecho-Slovakia.

London, May 3.—Germany will have until May 12 to accept the ultimatum of the Allies respecting payment of reparations and guarantees binding her to fulfill her obligations; otherwise the Ruhr district will be occupied by Allied troops.

The Supreme Council today decided upon the action to be taken against Germany should she fail to accept, but a decision was not reached on the nature of the guarantees she will be required to give.

The preamble of the agreement will recite that Germany having failed to fulfill the Treaty of Versailles with respect to reparations, disarmament and punishment of the war criminals and having violated various other articles of the treaty—which will be cited by number—the Allied governments have decided to occupy the Ruhr.

In this event British and Belgian forces on the Rhine will join with the French in their march into the district. Orders for the mobilization of the 1919 class were dispatched to Paris last night. A joint Anglo-French naval council has been called to meet in London today in which Admiral Beatty, for the British, and Admiral Grassie, for the French, will participate. The French admiral was summoned to London last night.

The Reparations Commission will notify Germany within four days of the sums payable and the conditions of payment. Germany's reply must be acceptable, without reservations or discussion. If such affirmative reply is not received by the evening of May 12 the French plans for occupation of the Ruhr, with a possible naval demonstration on the part of the British will be carried out and the proceeds of German revenue, such as customs, will be appropriated toward payment.

Edward Shinn, former president of the Relief Company and J. Sid Douglas, former president of the Reliance Company. A temporary organization was effected with the election of A. R. Fair, treasurer and A. Sidney Manlin, secretary.

READS BIBLE WHILE LANDLORD FUMFS

New York, May 3.—Believing that Providence never would have charged $166.67 a month rent for a one room office in the Aeolian Building on Forty-second street, Mrs. Lelia M. Tinsley, a public stenographer, is holding the fort against the processes of the law, swaying in her rocking chair and reading her Bible while the agents of the building cudgel their wits for some way of dispossessing her.

The rent has been raised from $90 to $166.67 in three years, and the last raise was too much for the morals of this religious tenant.

17 TRUE BILLS RETURNED BY JURY

Eleven Charged With Violating Prohibition Law

2 YEARS FOR LARCENY

Cases Against Three Young Men Charged With Burglarizing Store of Julius Wolf Set For May 24

True bills to seventeen out of eighteen indictments presented this afternoon were returned by a grand jury in the corporation court, Judge Robinson Moncure presiding. Preston O. Cockey was foreman of the jury.

Out of the eighteen cases presented eleven were for violations of the prohibition law, some had at their places of business various concoctions which contained more than the amount of alcohol permitted under Mr. Volstead's act and there were others who had the real old time rye liquor in their possession. In one case the jury returned two true bills against the accused for selling alleged whiskey. Three of the persons charged with violating the prohibition law entered pleas of guilty and were fined $50 each and costs.

Indictments were returned against three non residents giving the names of Walter Smith, John Harris and Oscar Gantt charged with breaking into the store of Julius Wolf, a clothier, which occurred March 18, Their trial was set for May 24. The court also fined one man for violating the prohibition law $50 and added a jail sentence of ninety days, this being his second offense.

Following a plea of guilty James Jackson, charged with grand larceny, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. In the case of a colored man charged with grand larceny the jury returned not a true bill. True bills for grand larceny also were returned in two cases.

Others on the jury in addition to the foreman follow: E. Gorman Ridgely C. Page Waller, jr., L. Levinson, J. Reece Caton, C. S. Taylor Burke and Arthur M. King.

W. Va. Police Scour Hills For Assassins

Charleston, W. Va., May 3.—The hills of Kanawha county are being scoured tonight by State and county police for the four masked men who, on the night of April 24, murdered the State's chief witness in the killing of Magistrate Thomas Martin in a moonshine battle a month ago.

The witness, James A. Richards, an aged mountaineer, was declared to be the only man who knew by whom Martin was killed. Three attacks by alleged moonshiners from behind boulders on the night of March 26 resulted in the Magistrate's death and the injury of several of his deputies.

The home of Richard's was entered late at night by four masked men. His wife fled from the scene, two minutes later hearing three shots. Turning her head, she saw the two room log cabin in flames.

Mrs. Richards continued to the home of her brother, a quarter of a mile away. Returning with her brother and two neighbors, she found only a pile of ashes and blackened kitchen utensils and ironware where the cabin had stood. A search through the ashes revealed several charred and almost consumed bones.

The battle in which the magistrate was killed was one of the most dramatic in the history of West Virginia's moonshine war.

Hughes Tells Simons German Proposals Are Unacceptable

Washington, May 3.—The German reparations counter-proposals are unacceptable as a basis for discussion, Secretary Hughes informed Dr. Simons, the German Foreign Minister, in a note dispatched last night to Loring Dressel, the American high commissioner in Berlin. The text follows:

"The Government of the United States has received the memorandum left by Dr. Simons with the commissioner of the United States, under date of April 24, relating to reparations. I reply, this Government states that it finds itself unable to reach the conclusion that the proposals afford a basis for discussion acceptable to the Allied governments and that these proposals cannot be entertained. This Government, therefore, again expressing its earnest desire for a prompt settlement of this vital question, strongly urges the German Government at once to make directly to the Allied Governments clear, definite and adequate proposals which would in all respects merit its just obligations."

American Engineer Sent To Prison by Soviet

Riga, May 3.—The Moscow Izvestia, in recording the sentence of Royal C. Keely, an American engineer, to two years' imprisonment by the Bolsheviki on the charge of circulating false reports tending to discredit Soviet Russia, says the time Keely has already spent in prison will be deducted from the sentence.

Keely went to Russia as an expert technical adviser to the soviet government, in which capacity, the Izvestia says, he issued reports through Afghanistan to bourgeois newspapers, aimed against soviet institutions. At his trial, he was unable to produce rebutting evidence, the newspaper asserts.

SINGLE DRINK ENOUGH TO CONVICT IN PETERSBURG

Petersburg, Va., May 3.—Despite the recent drastic prohibition law rulings in this city, high prices of booze and increasing activity of the police against bootlegging and moon shining, liquor still is obtainable here.

This is evidenced by the regular number of persons haled to court each morning on drunkenness charges However, when these unlucky ones fall into the toils of the law they have disposed of their liquor in sundry ways, and seldom are any caught with the smallest amount on their person. In this way, they escape prosecution under the "dry" laws, the court having held here recently that even one drink of contraband spirits in one's possession was sufficient to hold him for violating the prohibition laws.

VESSELS TO OPERATE DESPITE WALKOUT

Navy Yard Called on to Aid Mail Steamer

PROTECTION OFFERED

Admiral Benson nto Give Aid to Loyal Workers—Wage Scale Being Examined by Secretary Davis.

Washington, May 3.—Under no circumstances will the strike of the marine workers interfere with the operation of vessels belonging to the United States Shipping Board, where these involve the carrying out of definite government contracts as carried on by law.

This important development in the situation was made known today in part through a formal statement issued by Admiral W. S. Benson, chairman of the United States Shipping Board, defending his action in putting into effect a 15 per cent. cut in wages, as just and economically sound and announcing that the board would continue to "use all the resources at its command" in protecting the interests of the people in the merchant marine.

Of far greater importance, however, was the ascertained fact that the Shipping Board communicated today with the Third Naval district at New York, calling on the commandant of the navy yard there to assist in manning the mail ship North State, if such assistance should be found necessary.

This is indicative of an intention on the part of Admiral Benson to keep the Shipping Board vessels in movement under any and all circumstances.

For the first time during the present controversy has the transmission of the mails been brought into the situation as a deciding factor in action. It was pointed out today that still other considerations are involved by the fact that the threatened strike will include government-owned vessels in its scope. Under the terms of the Shipping act it is made imperative on the government to establish an American merchant marine and to maintain trade routes. With this virtually legal compulsion, it is indicated the government is placed in the position of being forced to run its ships, while on the other hand any action which would prevent their operation places those who decree such action in violation of the Federal laws.

In his formal statement, Admiral Benson indicated in general terms that no effort would be withheld to keep the Shipping Board's vessels going, and declared that "full protection" would be given to all who rendered assistance.

"Existing economic conditions fully justify the readjustment of wage scales and working conditions on the moderate and reasonable basis announced by the Board," said Admiral Benson. "It will indeed be unfortunate if the personnel of the merchant marine persists in refusing to do their part in the labor liquidation of the marine industry while still benefitting by the labor liquidation in other industrial fields.

"The Shipping Board is continuing its efforts to keep its ships in operation. The reports from its districts on all coasts show that it is meeting with gratifying success. This indicates that the personnel on its ships agrees with the position taken by the Board.

"This is a time for all loyal citizens to rally to the support of their flag. Full protection both now and after the controversy is settled, will be given by the Shipping Board to all those who come to its assistance in keeping the ships in operation.

"The Shipping Board will continue to use all the resources at its command in protecting the interests of the merchant marine of the people of the United States."

Latest reports at the Shipping Board last night were that but two of its vessels had been tied up thus far. One of the means of obtaining crews it was stated, is found in the "Placement Bureau" of the Board, which keeps a record of men available for service in case of emergency.

Verdict For $1,000

Alexis Frye Awarded Damages For Injuries When Struck by Auto

A verdict for $1,000 damages was given by a jury in the corporation court yesterday in the suit of Alexis Frye by his next friend James H. Frye, jr., in his suit against Joseph Caporaletta. The object of the suit was to recover damages in the sum of $5,000 for injuries sustained March 11, 1920 when he was struck and knocked down by an automobile driven by Caporaletta. The accident happened in Fairfax county. The plaintiff was represented by Attorney Frank Stuart and the defendant by Attorneys R. B. Washington and H. W. Smith.

The case was heard in the corporation court, and Judge S. G. Brent presided in place of Judge Robinson Moncure.

BLACK HAND MURDER DEVELOPS NEW THRILLS

New York, May 3.—Police battles, automobile chases, mysterious shots from ambush early today featured the hunt for the Black Hand gangsters who strangled and stabbed Mrs. Celeste Cassese, of Orange, N. J., in an automobile near South Orange, Friday night.

While Michael Sellito, 22 years old, who was bound and gagged by the bandits was being grilled by the police there was excitement in the vicinity of the slaying. Soon after midnight the police on guard about the Sellito home heard a pistol fired in a clump of bushes. Although detectives rushed immediately to the spot they could find no trace of the gun user.

Shortly after the mysterious shot and automobiles carrying several men approached the scene of the murder. The occupants paid no heed to the command to halt. Detectives and uniformed men opened fire. Their shots were returned by three men in the car. The police commandeered an automobile and pursued. After a chase of several miles in which many shots were exchanged, apparently with no effect, the bandit car escaped.

It is the belief of the police that the murdered woman paid a grudge held against some other woman by the black hand. They think Mrs. Joseph Sellito, mother of the man detained was the intended victim and that on recognizing Sellito, the murderers took it for granted the woman in the car was his mother, marked for death.

CANNIBALISM IN QUEBEC DUE TO GAME SHORTAGE

Montreal, May 3.—Introduction of the modern long range rifle, resulting in depletion of wild game in Northern Quebec, is forcing Indians and Esquimaux into cannibalism, Rev. W. G. Walton, English Church missionary in the Northland, declared here today.

The clergymen related an incident in which police of the Hudson Bay region refused to arrest a man suspected of murder, because to do so would have left his family to starve to death.

Effort to Free Yanks in Soviet Jails Forecast

Definite action to bring about the release of all American citizens held in Russia as hostages will be taken shortly by the State Department.

About 25 Americans are in Moscow. The total number now in Russia does not exceed 100, and of these about 75 are Russian wives and children of naturalized American citizens. About 6 or 8 are actually in prison.

It may be stated positively that there will be no recognition of the Moscow government nor any direct negotiation with its representatives.

In spite of the attitude resorted to by the Soviet authorities about 40 Americans have succeeded in leaving the country or have been aided to escape within the last year.

The ultimatum demanding the release of the Americans probably will be presented through another nation having agents in Russia.

Saving May Day.

Another May Day has come and gone and the Government at Washington still lives. Many such a day will come and go and it will still live. The chances are a hundred to one that if in the course of events any serious attempt should ever be made to change this government by force that undertaking will come in December or some winter month, not in May.

Revolutions cannot be ordered up to be served on a given day like turkey for Thanksgiving. The revolutionary forces of this country, if they can be dignified by such a term, show an amazing lack of knowledge of the American people if they imagine that they will ever be able to set off a revolution like a time-explosion. Revolutions are born, not made, and they only come when a people, weary and worn with injustices and abuses of every sort, rise up spontaneously and en masse.

Sober minded people would, therefore, do well to smile amusedly and pass over any such prattle as "The May Day of the American Revolution." Such talk will spend its force harmlessly and idly in hot air, the May Days of the years to come will glide into history as noiselessly and smoothly as did the one which has just passed and our summers will be ushered in with flowers and song and laughter, not guns, bloodshed and tears.

It would be the part of wisdom to ignore this yearly recurring but empty boast of a May Day outbreak against the Government by a few anarchists and fanatics. It would be extremely unwise to provoke or aggravate it by any counter-strokes of any sort. The less advertisement given such a folly the better. If the Department of Justice has any raids to make on "reds" and "radicals" let them be made on some other day. And if, as proposed, the patriotic and pro-Government societies of the country wish to make demonstrations of loyalty on any certain day, let them choose the Fourth of July or Washington's birthday. Let May Days be saved for the May-pole and the Queen of the May and all the happy things of the season that come in their train.

Revelations Astounding

Secretary Mellon of the Treasury Department, in a letter to the chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, says that the tax burden under which the people of this country are staggering can be reduced only by "substantial cuts in current expenditures." At the rate the Government is spending money, the Secretary does not deem possible any material reduction of taxes and he proposes to Congress a tax revision program embodying not so much a decrease as a redistribution of taxation.

There are two extremely interesting revelations in Mr. Mellon's suggested tax revision. One is that, despite all the promises made by Republican spell-binders last November about lower taxes, there are to be no lower taxes. The other is that in their so-called "redistribution of taxes" big business and men of large incomes are to be taken care of handsomely. About all the people of the street are to get out of it appears to be a promise to do away with the tax on soft drinks.

If, with all their glib talk about "economy" and "lower taxes," the Republican party in Congress fails to make material reduction in the expenses of the Government and consequently fails to make any material reduction in taxes, there will be no such difficulty in the next Congress, as there is in the present one, of finding enough seats for Republicans on the Repubican side of the aisles.

TURKS TO PRESENT DEMAND

London, May 3.—Unconditional evacuation of Thrace and Ionia will be demanded of Greece by the Turkish Government of Constantinople, Grand Vizier Tewfik Pasha is quoted as declaring in an interview with the newspaper Ikdam, of Constantinople, says a dispatch to the London Times from that city.

This demand will be incorporated in proposals now being formed for presentation to the Allies, as was suggested at the Near Eastern conference in this city late in February

New Version of the Eternal Triangle

NEW YORK.—Mme. Julie Vennet now is at Ellis island awaiting admission to the United States. Her entry is delayed pending the arrival in New York of Henry George Deppe, 62 years old, a prosperous contractor of Palmerton, Pa. They are to be married, and thereby hangs the story of a strange triangle.

Mr. Deppe's son, Arlington, was a lieutenant in the A. E. F. While in France he met Mme. Vennet. She was married. After a whirlwind wooing Lieut. Deppe gave her an engagement ring, apparently forgetting his wife and three children in America. Then Mme. Julie's husband sued for divorce. Mme. Julie was willing.

After the divorce, came Lieut. Deppe's departure with the A. E. F. He promised to send for Mme. Julie. Instead he sent the information concerning his American wife and three children.

Then Deppe, the father, 62 years old, began to correspond with Mme. Julie. Finally he sent her this promise, which enabled her to get passports vised before sailing from France.

"I, the undersigned, being a widower by death, desire and hereby promise to marry the said mentioned Julie Octavia Vennet as soon as she arrives in this country of America."

When Julie reached Ellis island the immigration authorities halted her. She showed the letters from the son, the letters from the father. But she could not land because the father was not there to repeat his promise in person. So the immigration officials telegraphed him to come and claim his bride.

"Lieut. Deppe's father quickly became concerned about me," said Mme. Julie. "His letters are brimming over with expressions of sympathy and affection. I am sure that I love Mr. Deppe, although I have never seen him."

"OVERTHROW WORLD ORDER!" CRY COMMUNISTS

Manifesto of Communist International, Seized in U. S. Department of Justice Raids, Tells "Reds" Own Story of Their Plans for World Wide Plunder.

Extracts from "Manifesto of the Communist International—Adopted by the Congress of the Communist International at Moscow, March 2-6, 1919, and signed by Comerades C. Rakovsky, N. Lenine, M. Zinoviev, L. Trotzky and Fritz Platten."

Alongside the dethroned dynasties of the Romanoffs, Hohenzollerns and Hapsburgs, and the capitalistic cliques of these lands, the rulers of France, England, Italy and the United States stand revealed in the light of unfolding events and diplomatic disclosures in their immeasurable vileness.

Spurning the half-heartedness, hypocricy and corruption of the decadent official socialist parties we, the Communists assembled in the Third International, feel ourselves to be the direct successors of the heroic efforts and martyrdom of a long series of revolutionary generations from Babocuf to Karl Liebknecht and Rosa Luxembourg. As the First International foresaw the future development and pointed the way; as the Second International gathered together and organized millions of the proletariats, so the Third International is the International of open mass-action of the revolutionary realization, the international of deeds. Socialist criticism has sufficiently stigmatized the bourgeois world order. The task of the International Communist Party is now to overthrow this order and to erect in its place the structure of the socialist world order. We urge the working men and women of all countries to unite under the Communist banner, the emblem under which the first great victories have already been won.

Proletarians of all lands! In the war against imperialistic barbarity, against monarchy, against the privileged classes, against the bourgeois state and bourgeois property, against all forms and varieties of social and national oppression—UNITE!

Under the standard of the Workingmen's Councils, under the banner of the Third International, in the revolutionary struggle for power and the Dictatorship of the Proletariat, proletarians of all countries UNITE!

The revolutionary era compels the proletariat to make use of the means of battle which will concentrate its entire energies, namely, mass action, with its logical resultant, direct conflict with the governmental machinery in open combat. All other methods, such as revolutionary use of bourgeois parliamentarism, will be of only secondary significance.

The indispensable condition for successful struggle is separation not only from the direct servitors of Capitalism and enemies of the communist revolution, in which role the Social Democrats of the Right appear, but also from the Party of the Center (Kautskians), who desert the proletariat at the critical moment in order to come to terms with its open antagonists.

The growth of the revolutionary movements in all lands, the dangers of suppression of this revolution through the coalition of capitalistic States, the attempts of the Socialist betrayers to unite with one another (the formation of the Yellow "International" at Berne), and to give their services to the Wilsonian League; finally, the absolute necessity for co-ordination of proletarian actions—all these demand the formation of a real revolutionary and real proletarian Communist International. This International, which subordinates the so-called national interests to the interests of the international revolution, will personify the mutual help of the proletariat of the different countries for without economic and other mutual helpfulness the proletariat will not be able to organize the new society.

Incalculable are the sacrifices of the working class. Their best—Liebknecht, Rosa Luxemburg—they have lost. Against this the proletariat must defend itself, defend at any price. The Communist International calls the entire world proletariat to this final struggle.

DOWN WITH THE IMPERIAL CONSPIRACY OF CAPITAL!
LONG LIVE THE INTERNATIONAL REPUBLIC OF THE PROLETARIAN COUNCILS!

BILL AIMED AT LANDIS APPROVED BY COMMITTEE

Washington, May 3.—The Senate Judiciary Committee today voted its approval of the Dial bill requiring Federal judges to devote their entire time to the duties of a judge. The bill as introduced by Senator Dial, of South Carolina, for the purpose of compelling Judge K. M. Landis, of Chicago, either to leave the Federal Bench or give up his $42.500 position as supreme arbiter in the base ball world.

The committee made a few minor changes in the bill and reported it to the Senate. It was placed on the calendar and will be taken up probably within the next few weeks.

Senator Dial thus far has made no effort to revive the impeachment proceedings which he urged against Judge Landis during the last session of Congress.

GUN DUEL FOUGHT BY MAN AND WIFE

Arlington, Texas, May 3.—Mrs. Dovie Ingle, 25 years old, and attractive, fought a gun duel with her husband, McKinley Ingle, 28, at the Ingle farm here today. She was killed, and he was perhaps fatally wounded.

The young woman, according to the police, hired a service car driver to take her to the Ingle farm. Upon arrival, she sent him to the door with instructions to "tell Mr. Ingle a young lady outside wishes to see him."

Ingle appeared. A few words were exchanged, during which Mrs. Ingle begged her husband to "make up." The husband refused.

Then, it is claimed, the girl pulled an automatic and began shooting Ingle fell. She began emptying her gun into Ingle's body. As Ingle lay on the ground he whipped out a pistol from his hip pocket and shot down his wife.

The tax driver rushed Mrs. Ingle to Arlington, but she died before she reached here.

Ingle was taken to the Fort Worth sanitarium. He has slight chance of recovery.

Neighbors said the couple quarreled about a month ago.

Kelly Pointed to as Sandy Spring Robber

Frederick, Md, May 3.—Eleven witnesses for the State testified yesterday in the trial of John Kelly, alias Frank Wilson, indicted for the robbery of the Sandy Spring Bank and the murder of Francis H. Hallowell, a director, on April 26. last year. Two Francis Miller and Miss Sallie Brooks, officials of the bank, identified him as one of the men who robbed the institution, and six—Mrs. C. A. Cutsler, John H. Wilson, Mrs. Vivian Cuff, Jesse Marlow, Olgie G. Dorsey and Charles L. Cuff—pointed him out in the courtroom as the man they saw in a large touring car with others in the neighborhood of the bank on the Friday before the robbery. Asa M. Stabler and Alvin G. Thomas, officials of the bank, testified to the robbery and the shooting of Mr. Hallowell, but were unable to identify Kelly.

A crowd that packed the courtroom and corridors, including a large number of women, attended the trial. Many arrived some time in advance of the opening hour and remained all day More than 150 persons assembled in front of the Courthouse, unable to gain admission to the courtroom.

Kelly entered the courtroom preceded by two State motorcycle policemen and closely followed by Sheriff Wertenbaker and three deputies. The officers formed a semi-circle about him as he occupied a chair next to his attorney's All of the entrances to the courtroom were guarded by special officers and a number of plain clothes deputies were stationed about the room. The prisoner asked to be tried before the Court, Chief Judge Hammond Urner and Judges Worthington and Peter on the bench.

Dr. J. W. Bird, the first witness, described being called to the bank on the afternoon of the robbery and finding Mr. Hallowell lying on his face lifeless in a pool of blood, with a bullet hole through his chest. Asa M. Stabler and Alvin G. Thomas, both officials of the institution, told about the robbers entering the bank, marching the officials at the point of revolvers to the directors' room, tying their hands and then marching them to the vault and locking them in. Both described the shooting of Mr Hallowell. Mr. Stabler said he recognized Mitchell, convicted at the first trial and now serving life sentence in the Penitentiary, as the man who held him up with a revolver in each hand; neith er however, identified Kelly as having been in the bank.

The witnesses who testified to having seen the car containing the men said Kelly occupied the front seat next to the driver. Mrs. Vivian Cuff said she recognized Thomas Penderghast as the driver. The latter was acquitted at the first trial.

The State has several other witnesses to examine tomorrow and will complete its testimony during the forenoon. Eleven witnesses have been summoned for the defense, mostly from Philadelphia. Mrs. Elizabeth Kelly, wife of the prisoner, and their two children and his mother are here and will attend the trial today.

KILLS HIS THREE-DAY BRIDE AND COMMITS SUICIDE

Lynchburg, Va., May 3.—Lucius J. Holland, 45 years old, attorney, churchman and bank director of Bluefield, W. Va., this morning in the Hotel Carroll here murdered his bride of three days and then cut his own throat from ear to ear, producing almost instant death. He cut her throat with the same razor. The tragedy occurred in a room just in the rear of the lobby and Mrs. Holland rushed from the room with blood streaming from her throat. She cried for a physician and fell between tables in the waiting room, where she died 40 minutes later.

Judge C. J. Campbell, who was passing the room as Mrs. Holland rushed through the door, heard Holland close the door and click the lock. A few minutes later the police broke the door open and found that Holland had stood before a large mirror, slashed his throat and fallen to the floor, where he lay in a pool of blood.

Friends here noted yesterday that he was highly nervous and excited. He was taken in ahnd by several of these and after an automobile ride and assurances that his troubles were fancied Holland was left apparently in good mental condition. It is learned Holland, who had suffered a collapse a year ago, was worrying over the fear that he would be criticized for running away and marrying his stenographer.

Holland and his bride, who was Miss Virginia Sizer, a native of Fincastle, were married here Friday afternoon.

Ex-Service Man Kept Going Down Hill After Discharge—Tanlac Builds Him up

"It was just three weeks from the time I started taking Tanlac until my troubles were ended and I was feeling well and strong," said F. L. Cumbie, ex-soldier and carpenter living at 11 Brook street, Lynchburg, Va.

"It was while I was with the army in France that my health began to fail After I returned to this country and was discharged from the army I continued to get worse, I had an awful day and call myself as good a man stomach and I had terrible pains in my chest and around my heart. I was so nervous at times I shook and trembled all over, and I slept so poorly that when morning came I felt so weak I could hardly get out of bed. I wasn't able to work regularly and during the day I often felt that I couldn't hold out till night.

"But I'm a different man from that now, for Tanlac is what has put me in fine shape again. I eat three big meals every day and even then don't seem to have enough. The indigestion is all gone and my stomach never gives me any trouble. My nerves are as strong as steel and I sleep all night long without waking once. I am feeling fine all the time working every day and call myself as good a man physically as I ever was."

VESSALS TO OPERATE DESPITE WALKOUT

miral Benson were in conference yesterday afternoon, but no statement was forthcoming from any of the three regarding details of the matter under discussion.

Secretary Davis is going over the schedule of wages and working rules in the various lines of service performed by the marine workers, with a view to finding out the effects which will be brought about by the proposed 15 per cent. cut in connection with the privileges and compensations afforded by the miscellaneous lists of working rules. It is his intention to call in the representatives of the several brances of the service and talk over conditions with them, before taking up the situation as a whole.

No steps have been taken as yet to draft a commission of three disinterested men outside of shipping circles to act as a board of arbitration. It is evident that there is a disinclination to do this until other efforts to bring about an adjustment have proved futile. It was indicated today that Secretary Davis has in mind a movement of his own initiating that may bring results without the necessity for recourse to a special commission.

Secretary Hoover declined to make any statement as to measures contemplated, although it was indicated that he is more concerned with the ship owners and operators end of the situation, with Secretary Davis dealing more specifically with the workers unions. Mr. Hoover was more communicative, however regarding the disastrous effects which would follow a general strike.

"There is nothing that will bring more difficulties to the American situation than the long continuation of a marine strike," said Mr. Hoover.

"It will back up all goods on the railways, break foreign contracts, and create a great deal of unemployment outside of the industry itself. It comes at a time when we can least afford any interruptions in our commerce.

"I am in hopes we can find some solution that will bring the matter to an end."

of the annual obligation.

The Supreme Council today reached a substantial agreement on the terms to be imposed on Germany. In principle it is agreed that Germany is under obligation to pay to the Allies 6,600,000,000 pounds sterling. She will be required to pay 100,000,000 pounds yearly, plus 25 per cent on her exports.

This obligation on the part of Germany shall be acknowledged by the issue by Germany of bonds bearing 5 per cent. interest. Of these, a certain amount shall be issued immediately a second lot in November, and thereafter as many more as she has ability to pay. How the bonds are to be paid off is still a matter of discussion.

These terms will be incorporated in the ultimatum, which expires on May 12. When the German payments amount to more than the sum required to pay the interest on the bonds already issued, the Reparations Commission will be entitled to require the issue of further bonds. The intention of the plan, according to a British official, is to proportion the German obligations, after a certain figure, to her ability to pay.

The drafting committee is still at work on the details of the terms, but hopes to conclude its report in time for tomorrow's meeting, which will be attended by the military and naval experts.

CAT ADOPTS 5 BABY FOXES, SAVING THEIR OWNER $2,500

Warren, Pa., May 3.—An unassuming, but faithful house cat, has saved the day for L. W. Archibald, superintendent of the Warren Black Fox Ranch, which is another way of saying that tabby has saved $2,500 for Mr. Archibald by adopting five orphaned foxes. Persons interested in wild life say this is one of the strangest family combinations they ever have known.

Last Sunday one of the foxes on the ranch gave birth to five tiny cubs, but soon afterward she died. The litter of foxes, worth $500 each, seemed doomed. The superintendent was in a quandary, for there was no other mother fox on the ranch at the time that was nursing young of its own and that thus might be prevailed upon to adopt the orphans.

But a cat in the Archibald home had just become a mother, and this gave the superintendent an idea which he decided was worth trying anyway. He removed the kittens from their mother and almost immediately afterward put the little foxes with her. The cat eyed the newcomers with suspicion for a few minutes, but without any openly hostile demonstration, and then, apparently deciding that all was for the best, took the orphans as her own and mothered them as tenderly as if they had been the kittens.

ERIN TO GET OFFER OF DOMINION RULE

Dublin, May 3.—Lord Edmund Bernard Talbot, who is now Viscount Fitzalan, was sworn in today as lord lieutenant and governor general of Ireland. The ceremony, which took place in Dublin Castle, followed precedent, but was attended only by high officials.

Announcement was made today by John J. Farrell, former lord mayor of Dublin, that a peace offer was to be made to the Irish republican parliament. Mr. Farrell said his informant was Walter Forrest, member of parliament for Yorkshire who, on the authority of the Irish office, declared the British government was prepared to grant dominion home rule in Ireland, subject to Great Britain retaining control over the army and navy, the moment Ireland indicates her will to accept it.

Mr. Farrell added that Mr. Forrest did not mention the exclusion of any portion of Ireland from the offer the government was said to be willing to make, and also that he did not refer to any financial provisions.

The proposal was submitted by Mr. Farrell to two members of the Dail Eireann, Prof. John McNeil and E. J. Duggan, who are now in Mountjoy prison, for transmission to the Dail Eireann.

Patrick Casey was executed by a firing squad at Mitchelstown, County Cork, at 6:30 p. m., today, less than 24 hours after he had participated in an attack on crown forces Sunday night.

MAKING BAD MEN GOOD

Effective Revolutionary Method Use by the Salvation Army in Prison Work.

During the last year The Salvation Army has found employment and given financial aid to 2,800 discharged prisoners. The old story of the man who cannot find a job because he has "done time" is a thing of the past, for The Salvation Army is always willing to find him employment. The old tale of the convict who is driven back to crime through poverty and friendlessness is out of date, for The Salvation Army is daily applying its theories of practical Christianity to the prison problem.

In 383 prisons and reformatories during the last year, 8,000 religious meetings were held under the auspices of the Salvation Army. They were attended by more than 260,000 prisoners and more than 9,500 men and women declared their intention of becoming self-respecting and useful members of society.

Nor does The Salvation Army confine its prison activities to convicts and ex-convicts. The entire family is frequently cared for and protected by The Salvation Army. Food is provided where there is want, shelter is given to the homeless, and a spirit of forgiveness is instilled in order that the family may be ready to welcome the transgressor on the day of his release.

In connection with the work of The Salvation Army, both inside and outside of the prison gates, some of the most remarkable stories might be told. Among the conversions made during the last year are some of the most notorious criminals in the United States—men who were old-timers, hardened offenders who had spent the major portion of their adult years behind bars. And in almost every instance the conversion has been sincere. Out of the scores placed on parole to The Salvation Army from every State and every county during the last year, only eight per cent. of the entire number failed to make good, the remaining ninety-two per cent. report regularly to The Salvation Army once each month and are quickly becoming hard-working, self-respecting men and women.

Among the recent activities of the Prison Department of The Salvation Army is the Lifer's Club, an organization composed exclusively of the 152 men who are serving life terms in the penal institutions of this country. The purpose of the club is to give the lifer something to occupy his mind—something to keep him in contact with fellow prisoners in other institutions and with the outside world. The officers of the organization are lifers, the members are lifers, and it will not be long before a magazine, edited by lifers, will be circulated by The Salvation Army through every prison in the United States, as a message of cheer for the present and hope for the future.

GIRL KEPT 16 YEARS IN CELL BY MOTHER

Schenectady, N. Y., May 3.—Confined by her mother for 16 years in a cell like room, during which she lived in continual darkness and never saw another human being besides her mother and an older sister Jennie Hall, 31, of Ballston, was removed today by William Hennessey, superintendent of the Saratoga Springs Humane Society.

The Hall family, consisting of Jennie, her mother and her sister, lived in a small hut about a mile and a half west of Round Lake. Jennie's cell was made of wire netting suspended from the ceiling, in a corner of one of the rooms.

The windows were barred with slabs, only thin rays of light entering. For 16 years she lived in this small space with never a glance at the world outside.

When the humane officer entered the cell she shrank from him in fright, never having seen a man in 16 years. She was dressed in a child's bonnet and flimsy clothes and was emaciated.

Proceedings have been started to have the mentality of the entire family examined.

Mr. Hennessey said that upon entering the cell room the woman appeared astonished and frightened. Apparently she has cherished her child's bonnet since her incarceration. She showed the mentality of a child. She also appeared to be weak and in need of nourishment.

An investigation by Mr. Hennessey disclosed that Miss Hall was adjudged insane about 20 years ago after being confined to the Utica State Hospital for a time was sent home. From that time she has not appeared publicly.

RUNAWAY CHILD POSES THREE MONTHS AS MUTE

Danville, Ky., May 3.—While the little inmates of the Kentucky School for the Deaf and Dumb were at their noonday meal yesterday, a 9 year old child, known only as "Mary," astonished the superintendent by breaking the silence with a spoken request for a drink of water.

Inquiry developed the fact that the child, who has neither deaf nor dumb, had run away from her home near Irvington, and when the agent of the school was in that town to escort to the State institution 23 mutes collected there for the journey Mary had joined the party unobserved and was admitted to the institution with the others.

For three months the child has played her part of mute, but unconsciously betrayed herself today. She told a pitiful story of mistreatment by an older sister, who frequently beat her and forced her to sleep out of doors, which finally impelled her to run away. She could not give her surname nor the name of her sister. The county judge today committed the child, said to be normal in every way, to the keeping of the Children's Home Society.

ROSEMONT DEL RAY
BRADDOCK MT. IDA.
ST. ELMO

At 4 o'clock last Saturday afternoon, parents and friends of the piano pupils of Mrs. Willis L. Wayts, gathered for their second annual recital in Mrs. Wayts' home on Bellefont Avenue, Del Ray. It was refreshing in these days of mechanical music and "jazz,' to hear and see these young students of music in a really creditable display of their progress, three things being quite evident, namely that the youngsters have musical ability, that they have an unusually fine teacher, and that they themselves have worked at their lessons. One pupil had only been studying music for two months, yet acquitted himself well in a little duet. All the participants did so well, playing with real expression, and what was also noticeable, with poise and confidence, that it is impossible to define the work of each, and the following program speaks for itself.

PROGRAM PART I

Trio, Menuet in Eb, Mozart, Sybil Kirwan, Alma Keys, Louise Spivey.
2.—Gertrude's Dream Waltz, Beethoven, Willard Coleman.
3. —Duet, Golden Star Waltz. Streabbog, Howell Douglas, Robert Smith.
4.—Selection from Bohemian Girl, Balfe, Alda Dawson.
5 Duet, Ill Trovatore, Verdi, Willard Coleman, Jessie Glassman.
6.—Joyous Farmer, Schumann, Norwell Owen Lloyd.
7. Selection from Martha, Flotow, Jessie Glassman.
8. Santa Lucia, (Neapolitan Folk song) Lichner, Sybil Kirwan.
9. Duet, Lily Polka, Streabbog. Alda Dawson, Norvell Owen Lloyd.

Mrs. Wayts here gave a very short sketch of the life and accomplishments of Stephen C. Foster, proclaimed by many to be the greatest of our American song writers.

PART II

1. Duet, Waltz From Faust, Gounod, Louise Spivey, Augusta Bode
2. Sextette from Lucia, Donizetti, Gertrude Mooney.
3. March from Norma, Bellini, Alma Keys.
4. Old Kentucky Home, Freeman, Foster, Howell Douglas.
5. Violin and Piano Duet, Valse Barcarolle, Offenbach, Lynwood Mooney, Gertrude Mooney.
6. A La Varse, Bohm, Francis Yates.
7. Triumph March from Aida Vendi, Louise Spivey.
8. Valse, Gurlitt, Augusta Bode.
9. Heart Songs of the People, Scotch, Bonnie Sweet Bessie, Irish Origin of the Harp, with reading by Mrs. R. J. Yates. American, Old Black Joe, Mrs. Willis L. Wayts.
10. Trio, Rustic Dance, Reinecke Francis Yates, Gertrude Mooney Howell Douglas.

At the conclusion of this very excellent program, Rev. Owen P. Lloyd, pastor of the Second Baptist Church in Alexandria, asked permission to say a few words. His remarks though few, were well choser and to the point, being an expression of appreciation of the parents for the excellent work which Mrs. Wayts had accomplished with her class during the year and the presentation of an amethyst ring and Lox of candy from the class. Mrs. Wayts was completely taken by surprise, yet managed a word of thanks after which the class members served every one present with delightful refreshments of ice cream and home made cakes which had been baked by the mothers of the pupils.

Miss Iona Duncan, from Alexandria, was a guest of the Misses Crane, on Sunday, in their home in Del Ray.

Mr. Turner A. Groves has moved his family from Braddock to their new residence on Mt. Vernon Avenue, Del Ray.

Mrs. J. W. Hammond is quite ill at her home in Cedar street, Rosemont.

Ray B. Cobean, Jr., of St. Elmo, is spending this week in Norfolk, visiting his aunt, Mrs. Frank Moore

Mr. Hume Walter is having a new tin roof placed on his residence at the corner of Washington and Mt. Vernon Avenues, Del Ray.

Mellow as Memories

IT'S like old times to get back to Piedmonts.

They're so mellow, so full of the old-time tobacco goodness. So different from the average smoke you get nowadays.

No use to argue, nothing else can equal the flavor of Virginia leaf for cigarettes. It has an individuality—a character all its own. And in Piedmonts you smoke it—STRAIGHT!
